

The Sewing Ladies Meet

A SONG
FOR LITTLE WOMEN.

Words by Willis N. Bugbee

Music by Carolyn R. Freeman

Price 35 cents

THE WILLIS N. BUGBEE CO.,
SYRACUSE, N.Y.

The Sewing Ladies Meet

Words by WILLIS N. BUGBEE

Music by
CAROLYN R. FREEMAN

Any number of little girls dressed as women.

INTRO.

With Good Swing

VOICE

then we're ve ry anx - ious To hear each oth - ers views.
 is - n't it just aw - ful, The way she spends the cash!
 he was such a good man Oh, is - n't it too bad!
 she is on - ly thir - ty While he is six - ty four.

Slower and with expression

CHORUS

Come join our sew - ing cir - cle It meets with Mrs. Brown, Then

f - ff
allegro

you may hear the gos - sip And chat - ter of the town. I some one's sick or mar - ried, Or moves up - on the street, You're sure to hear a - bout it When the sew - ing la - dies meet. Come sew - ing la - dies meet.

1 2

All seated in semi-circle and sew busily during first verse and through each chorus. Drop work while singing other verses and listen eagerly to the gossip.

The Sewing Ladies Meet 2