When Irish Eyes Are Smiling

Lyric by
CHAUNCEY OLCOTT
& GEO. GRAFF Jr.

Music by

Valse moderato espressivo

The piano introduction is in 3/4 time, key of D major. It begins with a melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The melody features a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, creating a lively yet expressive feel. The introduction concludes with a ritardando (rit.) marking.

The first line of the song features a vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "There's a tear in your eye, And I'm won-der-ing why, For it For your smile is a part, Of the love in your heart, And it". The piano accompaniment consists of a simple bass line in the left hand and a more active melody in the right hand, mirroring the vocal line.

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "nev-er should be there at all. With such pow'r in, your smile, Sure a makes e-ven sun-shine more bright. Like the lin-nets sweet song, Croon-ing". The piano accompaniment remains consistent with the previous section.

The third line of the song concludes the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "stone you'd be-guile, So there's nev-er a tear-drop should fall. When your all the day long, Comes your laugh-ter so ten-der and light. For the". The piano accompaniment continues to support the vocal line.
