Somebody Knows And Somebody Cares

Moderato

Please tell me
The lit-tle

won-der-ful girl, why you're blue, birds in the trees seem to sigh,
You say that no-bod-y cares a-bout you, each time my won-der-ful sweet-ie goes by,
But there is
And as the

some-one craves you all the while, Loves your style and needs your smile, It seems I've flowers need the morning dew, I need you in - deed I do; You're just as loved you for man - y a day, 'Till at last I've found courage to say:

sweet as an old mel - o - dy, And you're more than the whole world to me.

CHORUS

Some-bod-y knows you're all a-lone and some bod-y cares (Some-bod-y cares)

Some bod-y knows you're blue and Some-bod-y cares (Some-bod-y cares)

Some bod-y longs to hold you close in ^{his}her arms, So dear-ie, no use of sigh-ing no use of cry-ing I've always missed you and longed to kiss you

ritard

Man-y's the time you've longed to have a sweet-ie a round, — Hang-ing a - round

Some how you nev - er get your share, — and that ain't fair

You don't have to ad-ver - tise, 'Cause I can see the sad-ness written in your eyes, — Soon we'll have a co-zy flat — Who can tell but some day we'll have more than that, —

Some bod-y shows that some-bod-y knows, And some-bod - y cares. cares.
